That Little Hacking Cough

Hard coughs are bad enough, to be sure. But it's often the little, hacking, tickling, persistent cough that means the most, especially when there is a history of weak lungs in the family. What should be done? Ask your doctor. He knows. Ask him about the formula on the label of every bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask him if this medicine has his full approval for throat and lung troubles. Then do as he says.

PEACE MAY COME TODAY

(Associated Press Cable.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—Conflicting reports from Mexico today have alarmed official circles here, and it is considered that the situation has assumed a renewed gravity.

At a meeting of the cabinet today the consideration of the several tentative drafts of the proposed British-American arbitration treaty was postponed to allow a protracted discussion of the Mexican situation.

Americans Killed by Outlaws.
NOGALES, Sonora, Mex., May 2.—The situation throughout this section of western Mexico is grave. Two Americans, noncombatants, are reported to have been killed today by outlaws, pillaging under the revolutionary flag.

Today the revolutionists won a series of small successes, wiping out a federal detachment near Magdalena, Sonora, and cutting the railroad line south of here in several places, burning bridges and tearing out the track in Durango.

It is learned that the rebels are preparing for a concerted action on several of the smaller border towns.

Plans for Peace.
EL PASO, Tex., May 2.—Judge Carbajal, commissioned by the Mexican government to enter into peace negotiations with General Madero, arrived here today from the City of Mexico and has presented his credentials to General Madero and the representatives of the revolutionists. The formal negotiations for peace will be commenced tomorrow morning.

Armistice Extended.
CITY OF MEXICO, May 2.—The government has agreed to extend the armistice with General Madero for another five days.

Reyes Starts for Home.
HAVRE, France, May 2.—General Reyes, former minister of war for Mexico, sailed for America today in answer to a summons from President Diaz.

MONEY FOR TIMES PROSECUTION.
LOS ANGELES, May 2.—The city Board of Supervisors tonight appropriated ten thousand dollars to assist the prosecution in carrying on its cases against the McNamara brothers and McManigal, the three under arrest charged with being accessories in the Los Angeles Times outrage.

More Strikers.
Today two hundred additional carpenters walked out in strike with the rest of the carpenters' union.

CLAWHAMMER GETS ARMY BOOT

Now officers of the army must appear in nothing but the military dress uniform at social functions on military reservations, for an order just issued by the War Department puts the ban on tuxedos and full dress suits, also on hose of any color but black and white.

Society girls who have had difficulty at military hops in distinguishing between ordinary civilians and officers in civilian's' toes are accused of being responsible for the latest order that has emanated from the War Department at Washington to harness the souls and the purses of youthful lieutenants and economical captains.

The latest order is in effect that hereafter at all social functions at military posts the officers must wear their full dress uniform. It has been a custom at the military posts near large cities for the officers to go to the sparser social functions in tuxedos and the dress suits of the department stores, instead of wearing their official full dress uniforms.

But the girls who go to army dances were at a loss to whom to address their smiles and their charms, and are believed to have petitioned the War Department to order that officers shall wear the badge of the service when they appear at dances, tea fights, bridge whist pontons and other army maneuvers of the softer sort.

The sartorial rules of the war college have gone further. They have exiled the gaudy sock from the officers kit. In the general order issued it is stated that only black socks may be worn with the blue uniform and only white socks with the white service uniform. Officers when mounted must not only wear appropriate socks, but must wear spurs so as to appear as warlike as possible to their mount and instill in the hearts of the service a proper regard for the hazards of their vocation.
